

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their 62 stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is outrageous. The fact that Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge and then disregards the law to serve the public interest is unmitigated arrogance. This is clearly an attempt to pursue their political agenda by influencing the results of the election thru devious means and is only possible by the concentration of power in the hands of huge media corporations. This is a clear example of the dangers of such media consolidation.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them.
Thank you.
